

SEP 18 1964

FOIAB3B

Col. Geoffrey R. Norman, British Native Served in CIA

Col. Geoffrey R. Norman, 65, Guilford, Conn. Burial will be at 1 p.m. Tuesday at Arlington Cemetery. who retired five years ago from the Central Intelligence Agency, died yesterday after a long illness in Madison, Conn., where he was spending the summer with relatives.

Col. Norman lived here with his family at 3225 Thirty-third place N.W.

Born in London, he went to Canada to join the Royal Flying Corps in World War I, and saw combat over France.

He studied painting in Paris during the 1920s, and then went to New York, where he was a portrait and mural painter. He was also a president of the Society of Mural Painters.

He became an American citizen, and from 1938 to 1941 he was a deputy director of the artists' program in the Works Progress Administration here.

During World War II, Col. Norman was an intelligence officer in the United States Air Force in England and India. He joined the CIA after the war.

He was a member of the Fort Myer Flying Club and of St. Alban's parish.

He leaves his wife, the former Ann Spooner, of New York; two daughters, Nancy DaLorka Norman, of the home address, and Brenda Susan Norman, of Cambridge, Mass., and two brothers, Sherwood and Clive, both of New York City.

Services will be at 1 p.m. Monday at Christ Church in